

Democratic Policy Committee Interviews Candidates

Democratic and Republican aspirants to office were interviewed by the Democratic City Committee's Policy Committee this week drawing sitting judges, judicial candidates, DA and City Controller candidates. Committee's recommendations will be reported out for approval to full Committee shortly.

CHAIRMAN AND CONGRESSMAN Bob Brady shares a moment with some members of his Policy Committee. They include, from left, state Rep. Angel Cruz, state Rep. Frank Oliver, Shirley Gregory, state Rep. Rosita Youngblood, Mike McAleer, and City Controller Jonathan Saidel. Missing at the moment was Secretary Carol Campbell.

COUNCILWOMAN JANINIE BLACKWELL and aide ward leader Lester Brown were in attendance.

NEWLY APPOINTED Judge Glenn Bronson meets up with City Controller Candidate Judge John Braxton in lobby of Democratic City Committee.

SITTING Judge Walter Olszewski is flanked by ward leader Matthew Myers and Attorney Sonte Reavis, Esq.

THEY COULD sub as replacements for the Eagles. But they aren't football players, just some of Congressman and 34th Ward Leader Bob Brady's committee people. From left they are Richard Subbio, Keyveat Postell, Jr., Richard Riddick and Randy Huggins.

TRAFFIC COURT battle of the Michaels looms as Michael Sullivan, left, seen here with Local 98's Bob Mulgrew, appeared before Policy Committee. Sullivan indicates he'll challenge Rep. Michael Horsey.

LATINO SUPPORT was much in evidence for Judge Nazario Jimenez flanked here by judicial candidate Tom Martin, and ward leaders Carlos Matos and Candido Silva.

AMONG MANY WARD leaders who brought in candidates were Ralph Wynder and John Sabatini.

DEMOCRATIC City Committee Treasurer John Dougherty and Party Chairman Bob Brady share this photo op before beginning candidate interviews.

RECEIVING WELL wishes from Ward Leader Attorney Mike Stack is DA Lynn Abraham, among those seeking endorsements of the Policy Committee.

SITTING JUDGES appearing for endorsements before Policy Committee included Glenn Bronson, Susan Schulman, Nazario Jimenez, Charles Cunningham, and Walt Olszewski.

SITTING JUDGE Brad Moss shares a moment with PPA executive Vincent Finerty who was there to seek a cross endorsement.

JUDICIAL CANDIDATE Leon Tucker receives big welcome from ward leader Lou Agre.

DA CANDIDATE Seth Williams, right, sits with campaign aide Appollex Boled waiting for their turn to be interviewed.

STATE REP. Alan Butkovitz appeared before Policy Committee with political adviser and former City Commissioner Maurice Floyd.

THESE PRETTY LADIES all aspire to become judges. They are from left Sharon Losier, Joyce Webb-Eubanks and Lisette Shirdan-Harris.

FANS OF Judicial Candidate Joe O'Neill included Ward Leder Bill Dolbow, John Ross, and Ward Leader Tom Johnson